

Partner Organization Policies and Procedures

While using the Emily K Center we agree to abide by and enforce the following rules:

1. No smoking or use of drugs or alcohol while on the property.
2. Possession of a weapon and fighting are prohibited and will result in immediate removal from the property.
3. Doors to the outside should never be blocked open at any time.
4. Any and all incidents of injury should be reported to the Emily K Center staff member on duty immediately.
5. If an alarm sounds all occupants should proceed to the exterior of the building at a designated meeting place.
6. Partner organization should have appropriate procedures in place to manage emergency situations.
7. Children must be accompanied by an adult at all times while in the building.
8. All participants should be respectful of other facility users by staying in designated areas and maintaining reasonable noise levels.
9. Only water in closed containers is allowed in the gym – no other food or drinks are permitted without special permission.
10. All furniture, supplies and equipment that are moved should be returned at the conclusion of the program.
11. Any facility or maintenance issues should be reported to the Emily K Center staff member on duty.

Code of Conduct - Child Abuse Prevention Policies and Procedures Acknowledgement Form

In order to protect the children we serve, this policy and procedure applies to all EKC staff, volunteers, partners, facility renters, and program participants. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. At no time during a program may an EKC representative be alone with a single child where they cannot be observed by others. As EKC representatives supervise children, they should space themselves in a way that other staff can see them.2. EKC representatives shall never leave a child unsupervised.3. Restroom supervision: EKC representatives will make sure the restroom is not occupied by suspicious or unknown individuals before allowing children to use the facilities. EKC representatives will stand in the doorway while children are using the restroom. This policy allows privacy for the children and protection for the staff (not being alone with a child). If EKC representatives are assisting younger children, doors to the facility must remain open. No child regardless of age should ever enter a bathroom alone on a field trip. Always send children in pairs, and whenever possible, with EKC representatives.4. EKC representatives should conduct or supervise private activities in pairs - diapering, putting on bathing suits, taking showers, etc. When this is not feasible, staff should be positioned so that they are visible to others.5. EKC representatives shall not abuse children including:<ul style="list-style-type: none">• physical abuse – strike, spank, shake, slap;• verbal abuse – humiliate, degrade, threaten;• sexual abuse – inappropriate touch or verbal exchange;• mental abuse – shaming, withholding love, cruelty;• neglect – withholding food, water, basic care, etc.Any type of abuse will not be tolerated and may be cause for immediate dismissal.6. EKC representatives must use positive techniques of guidance, including redirection, positive reinforcement and encouragement rather than competition, comparison and criticism. EKC representatives will have age appropriate expectations and set up guidelines and environments that minimize the need for discipline. Physical restraint is used only in pre-determined situations (necessary to protect the child or other children from harm), is only administered in a prescribed manner and must be documented in writing.7. EKC representatives will conduct a visual health check of each child, each day, as they enter the program, noting any fever, bumps, bruises, burns, etc. Questions or comments will be addressed to the parent or child in a non-threatening way. Any questionable marks or responses will be documented.8. EKC representatives respond to children with respect and consideration and treat all children equally regardless of sex, race, religion, culture.	<ol style="list-style-type: none">9. EKC representatives will respect children's rights to not be touched in ways that make them feel uncomfortable, and their right to say no. Other than diapering, children are not to be touched in areas of their bodies that would be covered by a bathing suit.10. EKC representatives will refrain from intimate displays of affection towards others in the presence of children, parents, and staff.11. EKC representatives must appear clean, neat, and appropriately attired. Gang clothing and/or symbols are prohibited.12. Using, possessing, or being under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs during working hours is prohibited.13. Possession of firearms, explosives or weapons of any kind on EKC property is prohibited.14. Smoking or use of tobacco in the presence of children or parents during working hours is prohibited.15. Profanity, inappropriate jokes, sharing intimate details of one's personal life, and any kind of harassment in the presence of children or parents is prohibited.16. EKC representatives must be free of physical or psychological conditions that might adversely affect children's physical or mental health. If in doubt, an expert should be consulted.17. EKC representatives will portray a positive role model for youth by maintaining an attitude of respect, loyalty, patience, courtesy, tact, and maturity.18. EKC representatives may not be alone with children they meet in EKC programs outside of the EKC. This includes any non EKC sponsored event such as: babysitting, sleepovers, and inviting children to your home. This also includes any non-EKC approved electronic communication such as: texts, phone calls, e-mails, and connecting on social media sites. Any exceptions require a written explanation before the fact and are subject to administrator approval.19. EKC representatives are not to transport children in their own vehicles.20. EKC representatives may not date program participants.21. Under no circumstance should EKC representatives release children to anyone other than the authorized parent, guardian, or other adult authorized by the parent or guardian (written parent authorization on file with the EKC).22. EKC representatives are required to read and sign all policies related to identifying, documenting, and reporting child abuse and attend trainings on the subject, as instructed by a supervisor.
I understand that any violation of this Code of Conduct may result in termination and/or removal from the EKC premises.
